School, college and seminary funds

Set up by Enabling Act of Congress, Apr. 18, 1818.

(U. S. Statutes at Large v.3, p.428) Terms accepted by Constitutional Convention of 1818. Verlie, E. J. ed., Constitutional Conventions, Illinois State Historical Library. Collections v.13, p.20.

Sect. 16 in every township, or equivalent where such section has been disposed of, granted to State for use of schools of township.

Five percent of net proceeds of sales of U. S. lands within State after Jan. 1, 1819, after deducting costs: 2/5 for roads, 3/5 for encouragement of learning, of which 1/6 part shall be exclusively bestowed upon a college or university.

One township (36 sections) plus the one heretofore reserved for that purpose, "reserved for the use of a seminary of learning, and vested in the legislature of the said state to be appropriated solely to the use of such seminary by the said legislature."

L. 1821, p.145. State Bank to pay 6% interest "on all monies received into said bank on account of the three per cent fund accruing to this State for the encouragement of learning, from certain sales of the United States' lands lying within this State."

L. 1825, p.125. "For the encouragement and support of schools, respectively established within this State, according to this act, there shall be appropriated, for that purpose, two dollars out of every hundred hereafter to be received into the treasury of this state; also, 5/6 of the interest arising from the school fund; which shall be divided annually between the different counties of this state, in proportion to the number of white inhabitants in each county, under the age of twenty-one years, after the next census shall be taken; until which time no such dividend shall take place."

p.126. The auditor and secretary of state, under the direction of the governor, are hereby declared and constituted commissioners of the school fund; and the said fund now on deposit in the State bank, together with all such monies as shall be and accrue to this State, for the use of schools and a seminary of learning, by virtue of any act of Congress, shall be, and the same are hereby vested in said commissioners, to be by them applied in such manner for the use of schools and a seminary of learning, as shall be prescribed by law..."

L. 1826, p.79. $1037.79 appropriated to school commissioners as a full restitution of that portion of the school fund robbed from the State Bank, and not recovered, and of that portion of said fund retained to defray expenses of receiving said fund and of recovering a portion thereof.

The other bondholders entitled to receive pro rata payments have refused to accept same. For the years 1861 and 1862 only $\frac{1}{2}$ mill to be assessed; and assessment and collection of all other State taxes, except the school tax, for those years suspended. All funds now in State Treasury and belonging to the State except interest, school and Central railroad fund, to be loaned to the revenue fund; and all funds hereafter received into the State Treasury and belonging to the State except the aforementioned funds, to be paid into the revenue fund.

Treasurer to transfer from the revenue or other funds in the State treasury, to the interest fund, sufficient for payment of interest and principal on debt as needed. General revenue fund not to be allowed to be reduced so that deficiencies in interest fund cannot be met.

Pub.L. 1865, p.22. Gold and silver now in treasury appropriated for payment of interest on the sterling bonds payable in London. If amount of specie insufficient, treasurer to draw from the interest fund and purchase sterling exchange, at New York market rates, sufficient to pay each installment of interest as it comes due. Treasurer authorized to draw from the Illinois Central railroad fund an amount sufficient to pay interest if interest fund insufficient.

Pub.L. 1867, p.130. $200,000 of the surplus of the interest fund, now in the treasury, to be transferred to the revenue fund. All surplus of interest fund remaining in the treasury after the payment of the installment of interest falling due on the first Monday in January, in each and every year, in excess of $50,000 to be likewise transferred.

Pub.L. 1867, p.131. The payment of all interest accruing on the school, college or seminary funds, shall be made from the proceeds of the taxes levied for interest purposes, whether the same be made by distribution to the several counties or by warrants drawn on the state treasury, beginning with interest for 1866 due January 1, 1867.

Pub.L. 1867, p.143. Auditor to compute and estimate a rate of taxation sufficient to provide for and pay the accruing interest on the public debt of this state; whenever same shall fall below the rate now required by law, the auditor to reduce the rate accordingly.
